

Imagine...

Your computer immune to attack
from viruses and spyware!

My services condition your computer in two ways.

First, I provide you with a recovery disc that enables you to restore your own computer; therefore, no recurring fees and waiting for service or support. Additionally, I configure your computer so your data files are protected during the restore process.

Second, I provide a safe browsing solution that protects the operating system from attack by all forms of malware including viruses and spyware.
